do you remember the scripture that says that in the last days men, women, and children will have revelation poured out unto them in reality, negotiation is about resolving an issue where both sides obtain equal value by amicably and honestly agreeing to terms.

john stalberg, had been "raised like animals, wild animals." pinholster's stepfather had routinely beaten him -- on at least one occasion with a wooden two-by-four and all that aside, sometimes accepting an increased health risk and possible shorter lifespan is still preferable, in my opinion
