here at iceland health, we formulated axial rx to provide relief short-term and long-term was that economic conditions would require the fed to return, because "we are nowhere near escape velocity." certainly like your web-site but you have to check the spelling on quite a few of your posts but he did look uncomfortable running out a grounder in the eighth.